

Environment

Description:

This application sets and configures the Main Variables of the Processing Environment

Input/Output Arguments:

- |                             |   |
|-----------------------------|---|
| Main Input Directory | Configure the single data set Main Directory location. This variable is then provided as an argument to most of the data processing programs.  |
| Display Size         | This function is used to set the Image Screen Display Size , using the widget buttons :  or  . |
| ColorMaps            | This function is used to edit and modify the different Color Palettes. These colormaps are used to code the different data process bitmap output files.   |