My Function - Delete

Description:

The PolSARpro V2.0 Software is conceived as a flexible and open software environment where users can easily add new functions and components, as their need arises. This functionality allows the user to delete its own additional functions that have been included in the software.

Comments:

Parameters written in Red can be modified directly by the user from the keyboard.

Input Arguments:

Function Name Correspond to the name of the function to be deleted